

FACULTY POSITION IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS (MEN & WOMEN*)

Prince Sultan University is the first private university in Saudi Arabia, which emphasizes excellence in teaching, research and community services. PSU offers a Preparatory Year Program in which students develop their English, Math, Computer and PE skills to the standards required for study in English-medium undergraduate courses in Computer and Information System; Finance, Marketing & Accounting; Applied Linguistics, Computational Linguistics, & Translation; & Law. PSU is also now offering Engineering Programs. The Engineering Programs are: Engineering Management, Communications & Networks Engineering (Men College) and Architecture and Interior Design Engineering (Women College). PSU also offers graduate programs leading to Master in Business Administration (MBA).

* Consistent with current cultural norms in Saudi Arabia, female students are segregated from male students in all aspects of the programs. The same is true with its faculty/administrative members.

The College of Computer Sciences and Information Systems at PSU offers the two following Programs:

- 1) Computer Science
- 2) Information System

The College is seeking applicants for the positions of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, and/or Full Professor in Information Systems for its up-coming Academic Year 2012/ 2013 which starts in September 2012.

Required Qualifications:

Candidates should have a Ph. D. degree in Information Systems from a reputable institution with a special focus and experience in one of the following areas: Software Engineering, web-Based Systems and Database Management Systems; also a minimum of 4 years practical teaching experience at tertiary level. Preference will be given to applicants who have published papers in these disciplines. Extensive Research activities will be a plus-factor in the hiring process.
