

3rd CCIS Colloquium

5 January 2011

The College of Computer and Information Sciences at Prince Sultan University is organizing the third colloquium in a series of bi-annual Colloquiums. The primary goal of the Research Colloquium is to bring together faculty involved in scholarly and research activities representing all the research topics in the areas of computer and information sciences.

3rd CCIS Colloquium (January 5, 2010) Program

Time	Activity	Speaker	Areas of Focus / Title of Talk
Welcome Presentations (1:00 – 1:15 pm)
01:00 pm	Welcome	Dr. Abdul Hafeez Feda V. Rector PSU	Welcome message
01:05 pm	Dean Welcome	Dr. Abdul Aziz Al Sehebani Dean CCIS	Welcome message & Research in CCIS
01:10 pm	Colloquium Chair	Dr. Mohamed Tounsi	CCIS Research Activities during 2009-2010
Research Presentations (1:15 – 2:45 pm)
01:15 pm	Invited speaker	Dr. Essam Mansour King Abdullah University	Towards a new era of information management based on Cloud and Mobile Computing
01:45 pm	Invited speaker	Dr. Mohsin Iftikhar King Saud University	A New Paradigm in Traffic Modeling: G/M/1 Queuing System with Self-Similar Traffic Input
02:15 pm	Research Paper	Prof. Mohammad El Affendi Prince Sultan University	Digital Watermarking in the Transform Domain: The Pragmatics
02:45 pm	Discussion and Closing
Prayer &amp; Refreshments (3:00 – 3:15 pm)

* Each talk is of 25 minutes duration followed by Q & A session.

Prince Salman Hall, Main Building, Prince Sultan University

Organized by College of Computer and Information Sciences. Prince Sultan University, POBox 66833 Riyadh 11586

Email: {mtounsi, qureshi, rzantout}@cis.psu.edu.sa Contact: (01) 494-8445, (01) 494-8451

KING SAUD
UNIVERSITY

King Abdullah University of Science and Technology