

Lawyering Practical Skills Program II

Closing ceremony

Under the patronage of His Excellency the President of the University, the College of Law at Prince Sultan University organized the closing ceremony of the practical law skills development program, which was organized by the college in cooperation with the American Bar Association (ABA) from 20/1/2020 to 2/13/2020.

His Excellency the Rector, Dr. Ahmed Al-Yamani, and the Vice President for Female Section, Dr. Heba khoshaim by handing over the certificates of completion of the program to (26) female trainees.

The ceremony included a speech by His Excellency Dr. Yamani on the university's role in qualifying its students and graduates in a way that is in line with international standards and programs, and his happiness commended the program and its outputs, followed by a speech by the American lawyer Down Shock on the university's excellence, and its administration's cooperation in making the program a success, after which a video of the coaches' opinions and impressions during the four weeks of the program was presented.

Then the Dean of the College of Law Dr. Fahad Almajid spoke in his speech about the importance of the program and its role in training female trainees for the labor market and praised the efforts of the university administration in adopting and supporting these programs.

The ceremony also included the words of the trainees, their impressions and the benefits that they gained from the program and spoke on their behalf of the students (Reem Al-Qawli, Haya Al-Thunayan, Al-Dana Al-Otaibi), and the Vice Dean of the College of Law, Dr. Emna Shekhawi on the strength of the program, its importance and global reputation.