

Law Exhibition

In Collaboration with College of Law

November, 17th 2019

Overview:

In collaboration with College of Law, Dr. Zbaida Atim has organized with CSCEC an event for Law students, faculty, and it was opened to individuals from society who are interested in knowing certain rules and regulations in Saudi Law specially for women who need to know their responsibilities as well as their rights in our society. Based on the survey, the event had an effect of increasing the awareness among females in our society in different topics of law. This event was the first community exhibition for the College of Law which was implemented by a huge number of faculty in the college of Law and their students and it was located in the main building of the women campus at PSU. The importance of the exhibition focused on including all areas of current topics in Law which are interesting to raise the awareness for all of women in our society especially the ones who are in certain social situations need to know the right knowledge of Saudi Law from the college of Law at PSU. The students in the college of Law were presenting several visual aids to facilitate the information to the attendees of the exhibition.

The general objective of the exhibition was achieving the college's vision and mission as well where it had the posters and visual presentations that showed PSU college of Law students' knowledge and abilities which reflects the outcomes of the college positively. Furthermore, it had an effective role in building the students' personality by acquiring multiple skills of communication and enhancing the teamwork concept for the students.
